

Envy & Her Pups Were Left to Starve in a Locked Garage Read Her Rescue Story!

Meet Envy... I know it is hard to look at her pictures but it is reality. On January 7th I (Nina) got a call from a friend about a dog and her babies abandoned in a vacant garage. Upon arrival I found Envy and her 5 puppies starving and left to die.

At first I just wanted to cry because looking at Envy broke my heart. Then I got mad and realized it was all on me to get these sweet babies help.

Read her full rescue story and find out how she and her puppies are doing now on our blog:
