

Chelsea and her litter mates were found abandoned behind the Painted Earth store in Menifee. They were all very scared when first caught but have come leaps and bounds and are now very sweet and are becoming more open to being loved. They have both found forever homes!